

Contributors

WAYLAND D. HAND has for many years been a leading folklorist in the United States, his many publications attesting to his contribution. Professor Emeritus of German and Folklore, University of California, Los Angeles, he now resides at 405 Hilgard Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90024. W. F. H. NICOLAISEN is a most active member of the Society and has served it in many capacities, including president. His special issue on Theory of Names is forthcoming. He teaches at The State University of New York at Binghamton, NY 13901. ROBERT M. RENNICK has made many appearances in Names and has been active in the Society for many years. He is known best for his article on “obscene names,” a notoriety that he has tried to live down by indulging in the study of place-names, although he is back to working with changes of names. His address: 312 Riverside Drive, Prestonsburg, KY 41653. CHARLES FISHMAN, a newcomer to the pages of Names, provides us with an outstanding study in literary onomastics. He teaches at State University Agricultural and Technical College, Farmingdale, NY 11735. EDWIN D. LAWSON edited the special issue on names and sociology and now has contributed the “almost” exhaustive bibliography of contributions by social scientists to the study of personal names. The influence and the effect of Lawson’s research and compilations, already being felt, will no doubt affect the work of members of the Society so long as we study names. He teaches at State University College, Fredonia, NY 14063. Notes have been contributed by JOHN A. REA, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40506, and by ERIC P. HAMP, possibly the leading etymologist anywhere, Department of Linguistics, University of Chicago, Chicago, IL 60637. In order of our reviewers in pagination appearance, LAURENCE E. SETIS is first. As the director of one of the regional institutes, he seemed to be most apt and knowledgeable to review the proceedings of another institute. He teaches at Waubonsee Community College, Sugar Grove, IL 60554. J. B. RUDNYČKYJ, former president of the Society, continues to publish on matters onomastic and Ukrainian. Retired from the University of Winnipeg, he now resides at 4790 Rembrandt Avenue, Apartment 404, Côte Saint Luc, Montreal, H4W 2V2 Canada. ALAN RAYBURN, the leading – and only – toponymist in Canada, has always, or so it fortunately seems, been the leader in the study of names in Canada. He is now a vice-president of the Society. ERIC W. CARLSON is Professor Emeritus, Department of English, University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT 06268. WILLIAM G. LOY, Chairman of the Geography Department, University of Oregon, has been and still is a very active member of our Editorial Board. LEONARD R. N. ASHLEY recently served as president of the Society and is now a member of the Editorial Board. L. ZGUSTA, an honored Life Member of the Society, teaches at the University of Illinois, Urbana, IL, 61801. MARTHA ONAN chairs the Department of Languages and Literature at the State University College at Brockport, NY 14420. FREDERIC G. CASSIDY edits Dare in his spare time. His address: Director and Editor, Dictionary of American Regional English, Helen C. White Hall, University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI 53706. GRACE ALVAREZ served as president of the Society in 1983. She is the director of the very successful Conference on Literary Onomastics. Her address: Department of Foreign Languages, State University College at Brockport, NY 14420.