

Contributors to Volume 51, Number 1

Herbert Barry, III is Professor Emeritus of Pharmaceutical Sciences, School of Pharmacy, University of Pittsburgh. Training was in Social Relations (B.A., Harvard College, 1952) and Experimental Psychology (Ph.D., Yale University, 1957). Publications on male, female, and unisex first names began in 1982. He has recently undertaken research on fictional first names and surnames in novels by various authors. He is a member of the Executive Council of the American Name Society.
barryh@pitt.edu

Thomas J. Gasque is a professor of English at the University of South Dakota, where his main teaching responsibility is medieval literature. His research includes the names of South Dakota and names in the journals of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. He served as president of the American Name Society in 2001 and 2002.
tgasque@usd.edu

Aylene S. Harper is Professor of Behavioral and Social Sciences at the South Campus, Community College of Allegheny College. She also does psychological therapy and testing. Her training at the University of Pittsburgh was in Sociology (B.S., 1965) and Foundations of Education (Ph.D., 1975). She is coauthor of most of the articles by Barry on first names.
aharper@ccac.edu

Susan Petit is professor of English and French at the College of San Mateo. She has published two books, Michel Tournier's Metaphysical Fictions (Purdue University Monographs in Romance Languages 37, Amsterdam, John Benjamins, 1991) and Françoise Mallet-Joris (Collection Monographique Rodopi en Littérature Française Contemporaine 37, Amsterdam, Rodopi, 2001), chapters in books, and articles in journals including Novel, Modern Language Studies, Children's Literature, Mosaic, LIT: Literature Interpretation Theory, Orbis Litterarum, French Review, French Forum, Christianity and Literature, and Œuvres et Critiques. She frequently reviews contemporary French fiction and criticism for the French Review and has articles scheduled for publication by Dalhousie Review and Brèves. She can be reached at the College of San Mateo, 1700 West Hillsdale Boulevard, San Mateo, CA 94402. This is her first foray into onomastics.
petit@smccd.net