

Contributors to Volume 53, Numbers 1 & 2

Bertie Neethling is a Senior Professor in the Xhosa Department at the University of the Western Cape in Bellville, South Africa. Onomastics is one of his key focus areas and he has published extensively in this field, particularly in Nomina Africana, the official journal of the Names Society of Southern Africa (NSA). He also serves on the Executive of the NSA. His latest publication is a monograph, the first ever on Xhosa naming systems: Naming among the Xhosa of South Africa (Mellen Press : New York 2005). Other interests include oral literature, cross-cultural studies, and language acquisition. (e-mail : bneethling@uwc.ac.za)

Noriko Watanabe holds a Ph. D. in Linguistics from State University of New York at Buffalo. Her research interests include naming practice, discourse analysis, pragmatics, and language ideology. She has published articles on nominal references in Japanese discourse, language policies of Japan, and on humor in Rakugo, a storytelling art of Japan. She teaches at Baruch College/ The City University of New York. She can be reached at noriko\_watanabe@baruch.cuny.edu.

Edwin D. Lawson. Professor Emeritus of Psychology, State University of New York at Fredonia. Mailing address: 23 Westerly Drive, Fredonia, NY 14063. Past President, American Name Society, author of five annotated bibliographies on personal names, recent research has been on naming patterns over three generations in eight cultural groups in Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Russia, Soviet Georgia, Israel, and Azerbaijan.

Natan Nevo. Mailing address: Natan Nevo, 91 Bayview Rd., Halifax, NS B3M 1N8, Canada. Educated in Poland, Russia, France, and Canada. Taught Russian and French at Dalhousie University and Acadia University.

Alexander Beider is a noted onomastics scholar based in Paris.