

MECHANICS OF THE INDEX

There are four main types of entries in this Index:

1. words discussed in major articles, short notes or reviews, printed in italics:
 - Abnaki*, Algonquian tribal names, 3.75
 - alv*, in Germanic names (note), 1.128
 - acum*, in Hérault toponymy (review), 11.64–5;
2. titles of major articles and short notes, also in italics:
 - About American Pseudonymity*, C. Grant Loomis, 3.236–8
 - Alias Pangayo*, Hamill Kenny (note), 15.238–9;
3. subjects taken from major articles, short notes or reviews, printed in roman:
 - Adirondacks, comparational names, 6.83
 - Amish, first names (note), 8.194
 - Acronyms, dictionary of (review), 9.58–9;
4. authors of major articles, reviews, and many short notes, printed in roman:
 - Alatis, James E., The Americanization of Greek Names, 3.137–56
 - Ackerman, Louise M., Broken Bow (note), 2.194
 - Ackerman, Robert W., review: Gelling, The Place-Names of Oxfordshire, 2.201–3.

Other miscellaneous entries not covered here are printed in roman.

All of these entries are listed together alphabetically, letter by letter, up to the first mark of punctuation. The abbreviations St. (Saint) and U.S. (United States) are treated as if spelled out in full, but the patronymic Mc is not treated as if expanded to Mac.

Within the Index itself there are two separate units alphabetized separately. All books reviewed in Names are under the heading Reviews, and other publications not reviewed are under the heading Publication Notes. Both of these sections are alphabetized according to the authors of the books reviewed or noted.

One other simple rule facilitates the use of this Index: the word entry always precedes the subject or author entry:

Alaska, naming of, 4.193–204

Alaska, Etolin Island, 3.255–6

Ackerman, “Your Name,” 2.210

Ackerman, Louise M., Naming the Nags, 1.262–5

The number at the end of an entry, usually the third part of each entry, indicates the volume and page number, separated by a period, thus: 11.64–5 means volume eleven, pages sixty-four to sixty-five. (The year is not given but is easily determined by adding 1952 to the volume number; e.g., Volume 2 appeared in 1954, Volume 11 in 1963.)

The entries in the review section follow the usual and accepted format for bibliographies, except that the reviewer’s name is inserted in parentheses immediately before the volume and page number:

Bershas, Henry N. Puns on Proper Names in Spanish. Detroit, 1961 (Jack Autrey Dabbs), 10.70–1.

One further and final remark on the composition of entries. Every entry taken from a short note or review is indicated by the insertion of (note) or (review) before the volume and page numbers.

alv, in Germanic names (note), 1.128

-acum, in Hérault toponymy (review), 11.64–5.
