MEANING AND ORIGIN OF "MENON"

"Menon" is a title originally conferred by the Zamorin on his agents and writers. It is now used by all classes of Nayars. In Malabar, the Village Karnam (accountant) is called "Menon."

In Travancore Census Report, 1901, "Menon" is said to be a contraction for "Menavan" (a superior person). The title was conferred upon several families by the Raja of Cochin and corresponds to Pallai down South. As soon as a person was made Menon, he was presented with an Ola (Palmyra leaf) for writing on, and an Iron Style symbolic of the office he was expected to fill, i.e., of an accountant. Even now, in Malabar, each revenue village has a writer or accountant who is called "Menon."

The title "Menon" is generally hereditary, but be it remarked, many who now use it are not entitled to do so.

It is said in another source that "Menon" is not a Travancore title strictly speaking, but has been brought into the state from North Malabar, and originally indicated that the holder's ancestors emigrated from that district in North Malabar.
