

Notes on Contributors

JOHN ALGEO teaches at the University of Georgia. His latest published book is the Third Edition of The Origins and Development of the English Language (New York: Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, 1982), on which he collaborated with the late Thomas Pyles. GRACE ALVAREZ-ALTMAN, Vice President of the American Name Society, directs the Conference on Onomastics Sciences held annually during the first week of June. In addition to her teaching and her work in literary onomastics, she publishes the Lorca Newsletter and coordinates the activities of the Lorca Society. EUGENE GREEN teaches English at Boston University and has published extensively on early Massachusetts history. ANDRÉ LAPIERRE teaches Linguistics at the University of Ottawa and is Secretary for the Canadian Society for the Study of Names. He served also as the 1982 CSSN Programme Chairman. MARTHA O'NAN is Chairperson of the Department of Foreign Languages at the State University College at Brockport, New York. HERBERT PENZL, Professor Emeritus, Department of German, University of California at Berkeley, continues to publish outstanding articles on German philology and linguistics.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The XVth International Congress of Onomastic Sciences is scheduled to be held in Leipzig in August, 1984. Details will be announced to the membership when they are received by the Executive Secretary.

NAMES INSTITUTE

The Twenty-Second Names Institute will be held on May 7, 1983, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Madison, NJ. Submit titles of papers and 100-word abstracts to Professor E. Wallace McMullen, Director, Names Institute, 15 Rosewood Drive, Madison, NJ 07940 (tel. 201-377-4557).